

Universidad Ana G. Méndez
Florida Branch Campuses
Student Code of Conduct

Universidad Ana G. Méndez (Florida Branch Campuses) is dedicated to the advancement of knowledge, learning, and to the development of exemplary personal and social conduct. Students assume the responsibility for conducting themselves in a manner that contributes positively to the University's learning community and that does not impair, interfere with, or obstruct the orderly conduct, processes, and functions of the University as described in this Student Code of Conduct (the "Code").

While this Code may have some similarities with the legal system, it is essentially educational and administrative in nature. This Code is not governed by restrictions found in criminal or civil proceedings. It should be read broadly and is not designed to define misconduct in exhaustive terms. Nothing in this Code shall be construed as preventing University officials from taking any immediate action when deemed necessary.

Each student assumes the responsibility for becoming familiar with, and abiding by, this Code. The University reserves the right to make changes to this Code as necessary and once those changes are posted online, they are in effect. Students will be informed in writing of substantive changes to this Code on an established communication cycle.

Academic Integrity Policy

Policy Scope

Universidad Ana G. Méndez (Florida Branch Campuses) has set an academic integrity policy and procedures that extends to students, faculty, and the University community. The procedures include standards and responsibilities expected in all academic settings and define the students and faculty obligations in cases of evidenced student violations.

Policy

Academic integrity refers to the expectation of honesty in the development and submission of student course work based on individual knowledge and skillset of each student. Dishonesty and academic misconduct are not tolerated in any form by the University and must be reported following the established procedures.

Plagiarism is the dishonest representation by a student of information, ideas or the presentation of another student or author's creation as if they were their own. Not using citations, not giving credit to an author, or using excessive paraphrasing are forms of academic theft and plagiarism. Plagiarism applies to information in writing, presentations, drawings, seminars or lectures, graphs, etc.

Cheating is the act of misrepresentation of mastery or skill in an academic exercise. It may include using or copying information from another student to write a report or complete an assignment, using materials without the authorization of the professor during an exam, communicating with another student before or during examination, etc.

Fabrication or falsification is the creation of false information or results in an academic exercise to deceive and commit fraud. For example, the student invents false information and presents it as facts.

Violation Procedures: Application of the Code of Conduct and Discipline

The University Code of Conduct and Discipline defines all forms of academic misconduct as prohibited conduct and establishes procedures to review academic integrity alleged violations. Violations to academic integrity include cheating, fabrication of information, plagiarism and stealing.

Faculty and students are encouraged to report violations to the Academic Integrity Policy. Faculty must use the academic integrity violation report form to report minor violations such as unintentional plagiarism. Students must follow the procedures in the Code of Conduct for reporting.

Authority and Jurisdiction

The University reserves the right to take necessary and appropriate action to protect the safety and wellbeing of the University community. This Code is adopted for the appropriate discipline of any student (or student organization) who acts to impair, interfere with, or obstruct the orderly conduct, processes, and functions of the University.

The authority for student discipline ultimately rests with the University Chancellor. The Chancellor delegates this authority to the Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs, and the Vice Chancellor delegates this authority to designated staff on the campuses.

The Code applies to behaviors that take place on campus, in study abroad programs, or at University-sponsored events, programs, or activities, including at clinical and internship sites. While the University has a primary duty to supervise student behaviors in its premises, it reserves the right to take disciplinary action in response to behavior off-campus or online that adversely affects the University and/or the pursuit of its objectives and warrants conduct action.

The Code may also be applied to behavior online, via email, or another electronic medium. Online speech by students not involving Universidad Ana G. Méndez (Florida Branch Campuses) networks or technology will typically not be the subject of this Code with two notable exceptions: 1) A threat, defined as a threat a reasonable person would interpret as a serious expression of intent to inflict bodily harm upon a specific individual(s); and 2) Online or electronic speech that causes significant disruption to University operations or the educational mission. The Code also applies to guests of UAGM students. Hosts will be held accountable for their guest's misconduct or violation(s) of the Code.

All members of the University community are encouraged to report all suspected violations of the Code through established reporting procedures. All University employees are required to report all possible violations through established reporting procedures.

Student Conduct Philosophy

Universidad Ana G. Méndez (Florida Branch Campuses) is committed to fostering a learning environment that is conducive to academic inquiry, a vibrant University community, and discourse without fear of intimidation. We are committed to an educational and developmental process that balances the interest of individual students with the interests of the University community. The student conduct process is not intended to punish students; rather it exists to protect the interests of the community and to challenge those whose behavior is not in accordance with established policies. Sanctions are intended to challenge students' moral and ethical decision-making and to help them bring their behavior into accord with our community expectations.

Definitions

“Assigned Conduct Official” is defined as:

1. The Campus Director of Student Affairs, or their designee.

“Preponderance of Evidence” is defined as: the standard of proof that applies to student conduct proceedings or determinations. Disciplinary Sanctions

A student found in violation of this Code may be subject to one or more of the following sanctions by the assigned Conduct Official:

Written Warning - official reprimand to the student addressing the conduct violation and informing the student that prohibited conduct may be cause for additional disciplinary action if repeated in the future. A copy of the written warning is kept on file as part of the student disciplinary file system.

Restrictions or Loss of Privileges - Limitations on campus usage or University-sponsored events including facilities, courses, labs, or other campus activities related to a specific violation for a specified period of time.

Disciplinary Probation – A period of time in which a student is expected to demonstrate a positive behavioral change and may be excluded from participation in privileged or extra-curricular institutional activities. This warning includes a written reprimand along with the possibility of more severe disciplinary sanctions should the student be found in further violation of any University policies or regulations during the established probation time frame. At the end of the probationary period, the University will review the student's conduct and decide whether or not to reinstate the student to good conduct standing.

Community or Educational Service – An assignment of an appropriate project that will benefit the student, the institution, and/or the parties offended. Such assignments include, but are not limited to community service, letters of apology, educational assignments, and educational programs.

Restitution – Reimbursement to the University or affected party for damage or misappropriation of property. Restitution may take the form of appropriate services, fines, repair, or other compensation for damages, and it may be applied, where appropriate, in conjunction with another sanction.

Disciplinary Suspension – Termination of student status, including participation and attendance at all campus activities as set forth in the notice of suspension for a specific period of time. When circumstances warrant, the sanction of exclusion from the campus and University services may also be imposed. Being convicted in a court of law for a criminal offense involving personal misconduct may constitute sufficient grounds for suspension or expulsion from the University. A student on disciplinary suspension will be administratively withdrawn from their current courses. The student will be ineligible to receive a tuition and fees refund. Disciplinary suspensions are determined by the Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs, under the approval of the University Chancellor.

Expulsion – A permanent separation from the University. When circumstances warrant expulsion, the student is banned from the University property and the student's presence at any University-sponsored activity or event is prohibited. This action may be enforced with a no-trespass notice as necessary. Being convicted in a court of law for a criminal offense involving personal misconduct may constitute sufficient grounds for suspension or expulsion from the University. A student with a finding of Expulsion will be administratively withdrawn from their current courses. This administrative withdrawal will be noted on their transcript, and the student will be ineligible to receive a tuition and fees refund. Disciplinary expulsions are determined by the Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs, under the approval of the University Chancellor.

Loss of Employment - Permanent severance of the student's employment with the University.

Behavioral Requirement – This includes required activities including but not limited to, seeking academic counseling or substance abuse screening, writing a letter of apology, etc.

No-trespass Notice – The University may utilize a no-trespass notice on a temporary or permanent basis to protect the safety of the University community.

Disciplinary Probation or Suspension of Student Organizations – In addition to the above sanctions, additional sanctions may be imposed against a student organization for the violation of this Code and may include disciplinary probation or suspension of the student organization.

Discretionary Sanctions – Other sanctions that bear a reasonable relation to the violation for which the student has been sanctioned may be imposed instead of or in addition to those specified above.

Standards of Student Behavior

Primary responsibility for managing the classroom environment rests with the faculty. Faculty members are authorized to define, communicate, and enforce appropriate standards of decorum in classrooms, offices, and other instructional areas under their supervision. Faculty have direct support from University security and administrative staff at all times. Faculty should immediately report any incident to their campus Security Official and to their supervisor.

Students who engage in any prohibited or unlawful acts that result in disruption of a class may be directed by the faculty member to leave the class for the remainder of the class period. Longer suspensions from class or dismissal from the course on disciplinary grounds must be preceded by a disciplinary hearing, as set forth in the implementing procedures of this Code.

Academic dishonesty allegations will be processed in accordance with student conduct procedures set forth in this Code. Students may be subject to both the Code and separate academic sanctions as determined in the academic judgment of the faculty member as outlined in their course syllabus. Any student determined by the professor to have been responsible for engaging in an act of academic dishonesty shall be subject to a range of academic penalties (apart from any sanctions that may be imposed pursuant to the Code) as determined by the professor which may include, but not be limited to, one or more of the following: loss of credit for an assignment, examination, or project; a reduction in the course grade; or a grade of "F" in the course, a re-take, or other options deemed appropriate by the faculty.

Disciplinary Procedures

Alleged violations of the University's Title IX- Sexual Misconduct policy will be governed and resolved in accordance with that University policy. All other alleged violations of the Code will be addressed in accordance with the following procedures. Once an alleged violation is reported, the following steps will be followed:

1. The assigned Conduct Official will conduct a preliminary inquiry into the nature of the incident, the evidence available, and the parties involved, to determine if there is sufficient evidence to show a violation of the Code. If there is not sufficient evidence, the assigned Conduct Official will close the matter.
2. If there is sufficient information available for the assigned Conduct Official to show a violation of the Code, the assigned Conduct Official, will request in writing a conduct meeting with the student(s) involved within ten (10) business days of receipt of the incident report. The student will be provided information about the alleged violation of the Code and shall be afforded reasonable access to review relevant evidence or information, redacted consistent with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), prior to and during the meeting. The student shall have the opportunity to provide additional and relevant information or the names of witnesses to the assigned Conduct Official. Any such additional information or names must be submitted in writing at least two business days prior to the meeting. The assigned Conduct Official may consider the additional information or interview witnesses at their discretion.
3. The student may accept responsibility for violations of this Code in writing without a conduct hearing. A student who accepts responsibility in writing forfeits all rights to an appeal.
4. A registration hold will be placed on the student(s) account until they have both scheduled and attended their required conduct meeting.
5. The student shall have the opportunity to respond to the information related to the alleged violation of the Code at the conduct meeting. The student may be accompanied by one advisor. The role of the advisor shall be limited to support and consultation; the advisor may not speak during the student conduct proceeding except privately to the student. Violation of this expectation will result in the advisor being removed from the proceeding at the discretion of the assigned Conduct Official. If a student refuses to participate in the conduct meeting, a decision will be made in their absence.
6. A student may be found responsible for any prohibited conduct when behavior was previously unknown are discovered during the course of the student conduct proceeding or if it is determined that a different section of the Code more appropriately addresses the conduct in question.
7. If the assigned Conduct Official finds, based on a preponderance of evidence, that the responding student(s) is not responsible for violating the code, the process will end, the registration hold will be lifted, and the student will receive a written notification of the finding.

8. If the assigned Conduct Official finds, based on a preponderance of evidence, that the responding student(s) is responsible for violating the code, the assigned Conduct Official will notify the student(s) in writing of the findings and impose sanctions within three (3) business days of the conduct meeting. The registration hold may be lifted depending on the outcome of the conduct meeting.

Student Disciplinary Appeals Committee

Students found responsible for violating the Code may appeal to the Student Disciplinary Appeal Committee (the “Committee”). The Committee’s composition will at minimum include: one (1) faculty, one (1) staff, one (1) student, and will be chaired by the Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs, or their designee.

A letter of appeal must be submitted to the Committee within ten (10) business days of the receipt of the resolution letter from the assigned Conduct Official. The written appeal must specify grounds that would justify consideration. General dissatisfaction with the outcome of the student conduct proceedings, or an appeal for mercy, are not appropriate grounds for an appeal. The Committee will only consider appeals based on at least one of the following criteria:

- a. Significant procedural error – when a student can demonstrate that a procedural error was made that was significantly prejudicial to the outcome of the proceeding.
- b. Significant substantive error – when a student can demonstrate that the evidence presented at the hearing was not sufficient to justify the decision reached or if the sanction(s) imposed is (are) unreasonably harsh based upon the circumstances of the case.
- c. New evidence a student can demonstrate that information, that was not available or known to exist at the time of the hearing has arisen which, when considered, may materially affect the outcome of the proceeding. The Committee will consider the appeal.

The Committee may by majority vote:

- a. Alter, amend, and/or overturn disciplinary action;
- b. Schedule a rehearing; or
- c. Uphold the assigned Conduct Official’s determination and sanction.

The Chair of the Committee will prepare a formal letter detailing the determination of the Committee. The Committee should strive to complete their process within 25 business days. The Committee’s decision is final and not subject to further review or appeal.
